LAST HOME PROJECT YOU FINISHED

"Luckily, none of my projects are ever really finished. Relationships with wonderful clients creating beautiful homes together are always ongoing. I'm always adding and layering—creating spaces that they truly enjoy."

LAST BOOK YOU READ

"I always have an art or design book going for work inspiration, most recently finished reading Jean-Louis Deniot Interiors. For a fun summer read, I enjoyed The Swans of Fifth Avenue. It was a gift from a dear friend who I co-chaired The University of Chicago Cancer Research Foundation Women's Board Black and White Ball with. The book is an homage to the time of Truman Capote, his Swans, and his legendary Black and White Ball."

LAST TREAT YOU GAVE YOURSELF

"A very quick trip to Nashville to attend the Art and Antique Show."

LAST BIG LAUGH

"Watching Saturday Night Live past or present, or something my husband said. He tells me he is actually quite funny."

LAST SONG YOU SANG OUT LOUD

"'The Star Spangled Banner' on the 3rd of July with my family and 1,200 other people (I'm sure no one heard me!) and 'Top of The World' by Tim McGraw during yoga. Thank you Forever OM teachers for great music!"
